

Oh, the wondrous joy of dwelling

(CROSS OF JESUS. 8.7.8.7.)

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. Oh, the wondrous joy of dwell - ing Fa - ther, in Thy house a - bove !
 2. Thoughts di - vine con - ceived in pur - pose, There ful - filled for Thy de - light ;
 3. By the Spi - rit's power is strength - ened Eve - ry eye on Him to gaze ;

Eve - ry fea - ture Christ re - flect - ing, And Thine own sur - passing love.
 All that shone in Christ, once humbled, There ex - pands in glo - ry's light.
 Eve - ry view of Him un - fold - ing Wakes fresh bursts of joy - ful praise !

4. Every circle gathered round Thee
 Yields of Christ some beautiful ray ;
 And for Thy delight and pleasure
 Shines throughout the eternal day.

5. There Thy love o'er all transcendent
 Shall for ever find its rest ;
 While each heart, its joy outpouring,
 In that love is ever blest.

Alternate Tunes : Safety, 35 ; Placida, 422.