

(ARIEL. 8.8.6.8.8.6)

George West Frazer (1830-1896)

L. Mason (1792-1872)

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. What rich e - ter - nal bursts
 2. Each shall the Sav - iour's like -
 3. Our joy un - hin - dered then of praise Shall fill yon courts through ness bear, A roy - al crown each with Thee, Our eyes un - dimmed Thy end - less days, When time shall cease to be!

 brow shall wear, And robes un - sul - lied white.
 glo - ry see, Whilst wor - thy praise we give.

Round and a-round the notes shall swell,
 The e - ver-last - ing song shall be,
 Through that e - ter - nal cloud - less day,

As each re - deemed one joins to tell
 To Thee, O Lamb of God, to Thee,
 Our burn - ing hearts with rap - ture say,

Thy love, so vast and free Thy 'Mid scenes of pur - est light, 'Mid
 He died that we might live, He love, so vast and free.

 scenes of pur - est light.
 died that we might live.

Alternate Tunes : Meribah, 39 ; Pembroke, 108.