

And shall we see Thy face (Hope)

(SILCHESTER. S.M.)

John Nelson Darby (1800-1882)

Henri Abraham Cesar Malan (1787-1864)

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. And shall we see Thy face,
 2. With Thee in gar - ments white,
 3. Close to Thy trust - ed side,

And hear Thy heaven - ly voice,
 Lord Je - sus, we shall walk ;
 In fel - low - ship di - vine ;

Well known to us in pre - sent grace ?
 And spot - less in that heaven - ly light,
 No cloud, no dis - tance, e'er shall hide

Well may our hearts re - jice.
 Of all Thy suff - erings talk.
 Glo - ries that then shall shine.

4. Fruit of Thy boundless love,
 That gave Thyself for us ;
 For ever we shall with Thee prove
 That Thou still lov'st us thus.

5. And we love Thee, blest Lord,
E'en now, though feeble here,
Thy sorrow and Thy cross record
What makes us know Thee near.
6. We wait to see Thee, Lord,
Yet now within our hearts
Thou dwell'st in love that doth afford
The joy that love imparts.
7. Yet still we wait for Thee,
To see Thee as Thou art ;
Be with Thee, like Thee, Lord, and free
To love with all our heart.
