

309

Saviour, before Thy face we fall

(WALTON. LM.)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Sav-iour, be - fore Thy face we fall, Our Lord, our life, our hope, our all ;
 2. In Thee we eve - ry glo - ry view Of safe - ty, strength and beau - ty too ;
 3. What - ev - er foes or fears be - tide, In Thy blest pres - ence let us hide ;

For we have no - where else to flee,
 'Tis all our rest and peace to see
 And while we rest our souls on Thee,

No sanc - tu - a - ry, Lord, but Thee.
 Our sanc - tu - a - ry, Lord, in Thee.
 Thou shalt our sanc - tu - a - ry be.

4. Through time, with all its changing scenes
 And all the grief that intervenes,
 Let this support each fainting heart,
 That Thou our sanctuary art.

Alternate Tunes : Hursley, 99 ; Retreat, 246.